Marines' Golors Here in Campaign for Navy Club

Brought From Washington Under Escort and Shown at Mrs. C. B. Alexander's.

The colors of the Sixth United States Marines, decorated three times by the French Government with the Croix de Guerre because of that regiment's herole work in major engagements at Belleau Woods, Solssons and the Cham-Belleau Woods, Solssons and the Cham-pagne, entered dramatically yesterday return to New York on Saturday. into New York's campaign to endow the Navy Club, at 13 and 15 East Bortyarst street, for enlisted men of the navy and the marines. Upon orders from Major-Gen. George Burnett, U. S. A., commanding the Ma-Corps, the colors were ordered rom headquarters in Wasnington under of Lieut.-Col. Frank E. Evans, S. M. C., and a color guard to par ticipate in a meeting yesterday after-Charles B. Alexander, 4 West Fifty-

Another reason that prompted Major Gen. Barnett to take an exception to an army rule against the removal of regimental colors from headquarters was Miss Mary Livingston Willard and Mrs. Elizabeth A. Pearce of the women's compagn committee of the Navy Club, who requested that the colors be sent to New York for the meeting, were members of a committee that gave the colors to the Sixth Marines when that the hallroom was crowded when a bugler sounded the "call to the colors" and the ensign and regimental standard were carried in. Miss Julia Arthur recited an eloquent tribute to the colors. She also made an appeal for funds to help make the Navy Club the perma nent address in New York of all enlisted men of the navy and Marine Corps.

Lieut.-Col. Evans told of the campaigus in which the colors were carried in France and in behalf of the Marine Corps he thanked the women of the Navy Club campaign committee for the interest they took in the welfare of men when on shore.
